A first impression

For sale is this beautiful rustic house from the 18th century with sea views between Manacor and Porto Cristo. Situated in the countryside in an excellent location on a plot of approx. 23,600 m². It is a finca that still retains the traditional rustic style with its thick stone walls and is in a very good state of conservation. It is distributed over two floors of approximately 190 m² and 150 m² on the second floor. Upon entering you are greeted by a spacious living room, to the right the charming kitchen with a large fireplace, hallway, 2 pantries, two large double bedrooms, single bedroom and a full bathroom outside with separate entrance to a storage room of about 40 m² in total, ideal for a bedroom en suite. On the upper floor of the main house, with beautiful views, there is a large living room and two bedrooms, one with access to the upper terrace of about 25 m². The house has several traditional farm buildings, such as an old bread oven. Next to the house is the old barn in a very good state of conservation. The roof has recently been completely renovated. The house has electricity and a cistern. Outside you can enjoy the tranquility of the surroundings, with views of the surrounding mountains and the sea. A cozy retreat where you can enjoy the tranquility of the countryside while being very close to the coast.
