Detalhes do equipamento

You reach the private entrance on the second floor via the general staircase.

The apartment is spread over two floors, the third and fourth floors. Through the hall you enter the very spacious living room en suite with beautiful wooden floor, original details, a beautiful wall cupboard and a formidable view over the Amstel. The balconies at both the front and the rear of the apartment are also accessible from this beautiful living room.

The very spacious kitchen with natural stone floor is also reached via the central hall. The kitchen is equipped with built-in appliances, contains the original serving hatch to the living room and has access to the balcony at the rear. There is also a toilet on this floor with a separate sink.

Via the internal stairs to the fourth floor.

The spacious bedroom is located at the rear and from here the roof terrace of 23m2 is accessible. At the front is the second spacious bedroom of the apartment with various fitted wardrobes. Between the bedrooms is the spacious and very bright bathroom with bath, shower, sink, toilet and washer/dryer.

Tudo sobre a localização

The location of this pleasant apartment is unique with the Amstel river as its front yard. Because of the location, there is a beautiful view of the lock, as well as the traditional canal houses across the water. Within walking distance are all the interesting aspects that Amsterdam has to offer; such as theater Carré, but also the authentic Utrechtsestraat with its beautiful shops. In the immediate vicinity is a range of good restaurants and terraces. The location is also convenient to public transportation, the Ring Amsterdam and there is a direct tram to Amstelveen, where the International School is located. In addition its easy to get a parkingpermit in this area and there are more then enough parking spaces at the front, as well as in the back of the property.
